Re: King Air Sale

Dear John,

As a skeptic dealing with someone a thousand miles away and having never met in person, we were concerned to say the least. You quickly proved you conducted your business with the highest of ethics and with great integrity while providing the attention to detail we needed. You made the process very smooth for us and though you were not our paid representative, there was never a time when we felt you did not have our interest in mind. It is not often, one gets to experience the level of service you provide when transacting business and we are most gracious for that.

Please accept our sincere gratitude and thanks to you and your entire staff for the honest and kind treatment throughout the entire process.

Sincerely,

Crawford E. McInnis
Executive Vice President
