Dear John:

David and I wanted to let you know what a pleasure it has been doing business with you and your company.

As you know, David and I have purchased two airplanes from you in the last twelve months. Both purchases were sight unseen. (David also bought a Saratoga through your firm several years ago as well.) In each transaction, we have been extremely satisfied with the results of our purchase. Your firm is always extremely thorough in the search and inspection process and always looks out for our best interest. The aircraft are always as you describe them and have actually been better than we expected.

The professionalism of your firm throughout the entire process from search through closing and delivery (and even beyond the delivery) has been exceptional. You always do more than expected. We would highly recommend you and your associates at Bartelt Aviation to anyone who wishes to purchase an airplane.

Sincerely,
